Dear Parents,

Our number one priority is the well-being and safety of every Lansman's camper. Our world is very much a cyber one. As parents, we completely understand the importance of having clear lines of communication when our children are in the care of others; however, it is the camp's policy that cell phones are prohibited. You will, without a doubt, have every opportunity to speak to your child by calling the camp office directly. One counselor from every age group will have a walkie-talkie at all times, allowing the office staff to relay messages and have open lines of communication every day during the summer. Cell phones, unfortunately, create a distraction to the camp experience and environment. Again, our priority and responsibility are to protect each camper from bullying, including cyberbullying. Campers found using a cell phone will have it confiscated and returned to you at pick up. Also, Lansman's Day Camp can not and will not be held responsible for any lost or stolen cell phones.

We want to thank you in advance for your support and understanding. All business aside, let the summer and fun begin!!!

Sincerely,

Adam & Qynn Schumer
